

Collaborate

Possibilities.....

You may have never thought of college as an option. In fact, you may have been told that college isn't for you. It's time to prove that idea WRONG!

If finances have kept you from attending college, here is the opportunity to enter a unique program that:

- Creates a learning environment designed to help you succeed in college
- Provides scholarships and academic support
- Helps you to attain certificates and Associates degrees or to just try taking a few college courses!
